

The Prophetic Judgment Of My Servant Jim Bakker

“Speak unto My servant Jim Bakker. Why do you persist in your wicked ways? Your religious hucksterism has not gone unnoticed by Me, the Living God. Why do you persist in selling to My people? Can’t they go to the store to get what they need? And yet you go on, selling all kinds of merchandise. Is this what I called you to do? Your covetousness will surely be judged, for I called you to build My Kingdom, not your own. And still, you go on building an empire that is not of Me. That will be destroyed by My Hand, and everything that you have built will be obliterated by the force of My wrath, says God. Everything built on covetousness and greed will surely be destroyed by My wrathful Hand! Did you learn nothing in prison? Did you not read in My Word, ‘Thou shalt not covet’? And yet you still go on, full of a heart of greed and selfishness covetousness.

Give it all away, so that you may delay My wrath from being poured out on your life and ministry. Sell all you own and get out of the ministry, so that you can do it My way, following Me, your LORD in all ways on the streets of America, says the LORD. Do it My way, and get out of your ministry, delaying My wrath on your life. Thus says the LORD. Amen.”
